Springfield Wrestling Team Continues to Impress

SPRINGFIELD, VT—
The green grapplers of the Springfield, VT, Wrestling Team continue to impress; the JH team made a strong showing recently at a Mt. Abraham tournament, battling several large New York teams as well as Vermont teams. Dillan Lacasse, John Jasinski, and Hunter Ferland each pulled out strong 2nd place spots on the podium, and Noah Markwell nailed a 3rd place medal. Also at Mt. Abe were members of the JV team, freshman Trenton Rumrill placing 3rd and first-year wrestler Logan Webster secured 4th place in his bracket. Both wrestlers put out super efforts and "left it all on the mat," according to team manager Angela Ferland.

Traveling south to Bennington, the varsity team brought their A-game to Mt. Anthony. Bryan Stafford, Cole Wright, and Tim Amsden showed great improvement, impressing head coach Don Beebe with their progress. Skylar Wallace and David Rigney each battled their way to 4th place, and senior Brandon Bennett led the day with a hard-won first-place medal.

The team was scheduled to head to Essex VT on Jan 17th, 18th & 19th, with the HS team wrestling on Friday and Saturday and the JH grapplers hitting the mats on Sunday.

Dartmouth Overcomes Early Deficit to Beat St. Lawrence

By Pat Salvas
Courtesy Dartmouth Sports

HANOVER, NH—The Dartmouth men's hockey team fell behind early to St. Lawrence Saturday night, but quickly rebounded and came away with the 3-1 win in front of a loud Thompson Arena crowd.

Three different players found the back of the net as the Big Green (10-5-3, 7-3-1 ECAC Hockey) pushed its win streak to three games and moved up the conference standings. The Saints (3-19-3, 1-12-0 ECAC) are now winless in their last 15 games (0-13-2) with Saturday's result.

"A big weekend with four huge points for us," Koenig Family Head Coach Bob Gaudet '81 said afterward. "We knew after last night we couldn't have a letdown against a team that always comes into this building and plays us hard. We played hard all weekend and got the results we were looking for and are a better team today than we were a week ago because of it."

After St. Lawrence opened the scoring just 86 seconds into the game on Callum Cusinato's first of the season, the home team had to answer back and did so quickly with Cam Strong netting his second of the year at the 5:44 mark, knocking in a low-slot loose puck just under the bar.

Fellow senior Will Graber put his team in front with what would prove to be the game winner not even four minutes later. Graber corralled a clearing attempt at the blueline, skated into the low slot from the halfboards and went upstairs with a backhand to give the team in green a 2-1 lead.

Exactly halfway through the game, sophomore Drew O'Connor made it 3-1 as his point shot on the power play somehow found the back of the net, redirecting in off a defender's stick in front of the crease.

For O'Connor, it was his 11th goal of the season, a figure that tied for the most in ECAC Hockey at the time, but was passed later in the night by Yale's Curtis Hall and his 12th of the year.

Collin Rutherford, Quin Foreman and Matt Baker all had helpers.

Senior Adrian Clark bounced back from the early goal to make just 14 saves in the win. Dartmouth held the Saints to 15 shots on goal in the game, a season low for any opponent by nine. The home team held a 27-15 edge in shots on goal with neither team doing much in the third as the Saints had five of the six pucks on net.

The Big Green are now 7-1-2 at home in 2019-20, the second-best mark of any team in the league only to top-ranked Cornell, who is 5-0-1. Since returning from winter break, the Green and White are 6-1-1.

Dartmouth heads out on the road next weekend, taking on the No. 1 Big Red and Colgate. Both games are set for 7 p.m. puck drops.

Big Green Fall to Raiders to End Road Weekend

HAMILTON, NY—An explosive second period led to Colgate defeating the Dartmouth women's hockey team by a score of 5-1 at the Class of 1965 Arena on Saturday.

After being scoreless at the end of the first period, a combined five goals were scored in the second, giving the Raiders a 4-1 advantage heading into the final period.

Freshman CC Bowlby and junior Emily

McLaughlin were credited with Dartmouth's goals, while fellow junior Katerina Dajia assisted on the second marker. In net, freshman Hannah Humphreys had 12 saves in the first 28 minutes before making way for junior Kayla Wormsbecher, who had 12 stops in 31 minutes.

The Big Green looked good in the opening stanza, putting some nice shots on net while also keeping the Raiders off the board at the same time. Colgate (13-9-4, 7-4-1) started the second period off stronger than Dartmouth (5-11-3, 2-8-3), scoring three goals and prompting Wormsbecher to enter the game at 8:04.

At 9:20, Bowlby netted her eighth of the season, intercepting a Raiders pass and firing past goalie Liz Auby while falling to bring the Green within two. Colgate added one more in the final two minutes to make it a 4-1 game heading to the third.

Colgate got one more on the board at 6:27, but Dartmouth cut that lead back to three when McLaughlin scored her first goal of the season at 12:55. Wormsbecher had some good saves in the final few minutes to keep the home team from scoring again.

The Raiders had a 29-19 shot advantage and went 1-for-6 on the power play, while the Big Green missed out on all three opportunities.

Late Run Not Enough in Close Game at Harvard, 67-62

By Rick Bender

CAMBRIDGE, MA.—Harvard broke open a tight game with a 12-2 run late in the second half, then fended off upset-minded Dartmouth, 67-62, in the Ivy League opener for both teams on Saturday afternoon at Lavietes Pavilion. Aaryn Rai led four Big Green players in double figures with 13 — eight in the final two minutes — but they could not quite overcome the 12-point hole in the final three minutes.

These two teams will play the rematch next Saturday at Leede Arena in Hanover at 7 p.m. The game will be streamed live on ESPN+ with Bob Lipman and Dave Faucher calling the action, while a free audio stream will be available on the official website of Big Green athletics, DartmouthSports.com, featuring Brett Franklin on the call.

Let the Voice of Justice Be Heard

By Priscilla Hull

*Hello darkness, my old friend
I've come to talk with you again
Because a vision softly creeping
Left its seeds while I was sleeping
And the vision that was planted in my brain
Still remains
Within the sound of silence*

*"Fools," said I, "you do not know
Silence like a cancer grows
Hear my words that I might teach you
Take my arms that I might reach you"
But my words like silent raindrops fell
And echoed in the wells of silence*

The sound of silence, Paul Simon, 1964

In 1964, during a time of turmoil in our country, a young man, Paul Simon, released a song called "The Sound of Silence". Our country is in a similar time of turbulence. Once again we are involved in a war that seems to have no purpose; there is unrest at home which is characterized by anger and discomfort between ethnic, political and more differences. At that time, 60 plus years ago, and today, the depth of the problem seems to be lack of understanding and lack of willingness to listen to adverse positions. We seem to be in a "my way or the highway" frame of mind. We are echoing the words of the song. We talk, but our words are without meaning. We hear, but we don't listen to what others are saying. In frustration Simon finally says "Silence like a cancer grows" and pleads to be heard and touched.

In a society where distrust is overwhelming, where fear is rampant, we are so frightened that we can't hear the good things that others are doing. Some put money and material wealth above compassion, love and care. Fighting to be at the front, walking over others to get there, turning our backs on the needs of others; these are things happening today, but it's not a new phenomenon. We've done this for years, for ages. We don't listen to what people are saying, we don't hear the cry of those who need our care. Even worse, we don't speak out. We don't stand up for others, only ourselves. The silence is overwhelming. That's what Paul Simon was saying all those years ago. We haven't grown much. The silence is deafening. If we allow it, it will continue to grow and the silence will cause more injustice. It will cause more poverty, hunger, homelessness and civilian unrest.

Today is Martin Luther King Day. He was a champion for justice and equality, not only racial equality, but equality among all therefore upholding that great phrase, "Liberty and justice for all."

The silent world that we live in breeds fear, distrust, unrest. Sixty years later, we have again reached a point where trust has flown out the window and fear grows and grows. In our silence, we refuse to acknowledge the controversy. In our silence, we condone the controversy. By refusing to discuss our differences, we refuse to solve the problems. The silence grows and the cancer eats away the good, leaving only the rotten flesh of unrest and dissatisfaction.

We can't continue on this way. It's time to step up!

Don't be silent. Don't let the cancer of silence grow. Martin Luther King gave his life so that we can speak. Go! Vote! Make your voice heard. Vote as your heart tells you. Just go vote!

*"Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow."
Isaiah 1:17*
