Super Fun on Super Bowl Sunday!

Super Bowl Fun in Claremont on Sunday included the annual 5K Pigskin Run/Walk. Around 120 people participated this year, and participants included children of all ages. The overall top female and male winners were Uhuru Hashimoto, 19:30, and Brian Lashway, 18:33. Proceeds from the event benefit the Claremont Savings Bank Community Center; the event was put on by the Claremont Parks & Rec Dept. Helping to spur participants on were the Mini Cardinals Cheerleaders who showed lots of enthusiasm and spirit!

SHS Takes on Raiders, Bears

The Stevens basketball team played a pair of games this past week. The Varsity and JV hosted the Lebanon Raiders and Coe-Brown Bears.

On Tuesday the Lebanon Raiders invaded Frederick Carr Gymnasium and returned home with a 79-37 victory. The Raiders proved to be too much for the Cardinals, as they ran out to a 40-20 halftime lead, and never looked back. Clayton Wadsworth led the offensive attack for Stevens as he scored 8 points. Owen Taylor had 6 points and freshman Kayden LaClair had a career high 6 points, as well. Brady Moote chipped in with 5 points.

On Friday night Stevens stayed close to the Bears of Coe Brown for most of the first half before dropping a 49-23 decision. Matt Jones had a team high 6 points, while Clayton Wadsworth chipped in with 5 points. Alex Taylor had 3 points while grabbing 8 rebounds.

The junior Cardinals dropped a 50-38 decision to the Raiders on Tuesday night. Jai-Lique Ribeiro had a team high 12 points. Caden Ferland tossed in a season high 8 points.

On Friday night Stevens lost to Coe-Brown 53-40. Tucker Derosier paced the Cardinals with 10 points. Trystan Lane had 8 points, while Zach Bundy and Jai-Lique Ribeiro each had 6 points. Ty Theriault had a team high 6 rebounds.

Where Is Your Treasure?

By Priscilla Hull

There is nothing's no so precious as a newborn baby. Grandmothers, great grandmothers and the same grandfathers and great grandfathers find a joy beyond compare when a new member of the family arrives. They can't wait to hold the baby, cuddle it and whisper sweet nothings to them, touch their toes and admire the soft shines hair of their head. It's a natural thing to do. It is our treasure!

There is so much treasure in life that comes close to a newborn baby, but nothing quite equals that first touch of a newborn baby.

What is your treasure, where do you find the most precious thing in your life? What is it that makes your heart swell with pride? What is your greatest possession? We all have something that makes us feel better than average, something we've made or purchased that is better than good. Yet, what is this thing that we possess? In reality it is a thing, an object. Maybe it has great value but the fact is that it can be replaced. If it disappears we might miss it for a while, but we can live without it. We can get something similar or very different that will at least take its place and maybe fill the need.

The treasure I'm talking about is something so special that we can't possibly replace it. It isn't tangible. We can't fold it up and tuck it into a pocket or a bag or a suitcase. Think about it! Our lives are quite frankly full of this kind of treasure. The problem is that we don't recognize them as treasure. They don't fit in any box. They aren't seen or smelled or tasted. They are the everyday things which we mostly take for granted.

When you discover that treasure, more precious than diamonds and gold, hold it in your heart because that is how to keep it forever! Hold it there and you'll be rich beyond measure!

"Do not store up treasures on earth where moths and vermin destroy and where thieves break in and destroy. Instead store up your treasures in heaven for where your treasure is there your heart shall be also."

Matthew 6:19-21

Katherine A. Colby, 49

Kathrine Ann Colby, age 49, passed away at 2:55 am Friday morning, 01/24/2020, in the comfort of her home due to a long battle with COPD and other illnesses. In the hours following, she was visited by many family members, friends, and other loved ones to see her one last time and say goodbye. She passed peacefully in her sleep.

-Dr. Sam Giveen

It's all in the details. When you buy eyeglasses from Doctor Sam's, they typically cost less and they're better made—right down to screws that stay just where they are. It's no-nonsense, straightforward attention to detail that makes Dr. Sam who he is—and makes his patients very happy.

Kathrine was born in Lawrence, MA, on November 23rd, 1970, to Paul Gray and Gloria Harris.

She was preceded in death by her father Paul Gray, her stepfather Bruce Chaffee, her sister Mary Bartley, and her daughter Tracia Colby.

Kathrine is survived by her husband Toby Colby, her son Jeffry Colby and his companion Jennifer Hiscoe, her daughters Honi Kainu and her companion John Kainu 3rd, Shugah Colby and her companion Kelly Guillory, and Khandee Colby and her companion Hunter Ellingwood, her grandchildren Nevaeh Caron, Johanna Kainu, Abigail Shay, Jazmyn Dougherty, Savanna Laflamme, Katalina Cruz Colby, Aurora Colby, Jeffry Colby Jr, and soon-to-be Weston Ellingwood. She is also survived by her mother Gloria Harris, and her sisters Sandi Simmons and Susan Harris, as well as many other family and friends.

Services will be held Saturday, Feb. 8th, at 1pm at the Moose Lodge in Newport, NH. Everyone is welcome. Kathrine has touched so many people in her lifetime, and I hope to see them all there showering her with the same love she always showed everyone around her. Family meant everything to Kathrine. From her sisters growing up, to her husband, kids, and grandkids as an adult. Family and Love is what mattered most, Always and Forever, as she would say. She didn't care what we were doing, as long as we were all together. Although we've known this day was coming, letting her go was just as hard for her as it was for all of us, if not harder. She lived for her family, blood or not.

Kathrine was a beautiful soul. She loved to dance, she rode motorcycles, snowmobiles, four wheelers, dirt bikes, she had tea parties and played dress up with the grandkids, she was so adventurous and loved to travel. There was nothing she wouldn't do. In her short time on this earth, Kathrine lived for making memories. She was loving, encouraging, compassionate. Sometimes a little hard, and honest to a T, but always full of love, and always with good intentions. Kathrine Ann Colby will be dearly loved and missed for all of eternity. Until we meet again, With love, Always & Forever.

Joan Elisabeth Magoon, 85, of Claremont, NH, passed away on January 27, 2020, at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, NH.

She was born on April 16, 1934, in Boston, MA, the daughter of James and Gladys (Carter) Landers. She had lived in New Hampshire since she was eight years old and 54 years in Claremont until she moved to The Villages at Cedar Hill in Windsor, VT in 2017. She married Paul H. Magoon on August 18, 1963 and they had 54 happy years together until his passing in 2017. She and Paul enjoyed traveling and had many wonderful trips in the USA and Europe, many times with family and friends.

She was a graduate of Coe Brown Northwood Academy and Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She became a registered nurse and worked for 35 years with the last 27 years at Claremont General/Regional Hospital in Claremont. She was a member of Trinity Episcopal Church, the Ladies Union Aid Society of VRH, an alumna of Coe Brown Academy Alumni Association, and MHMH School of Nursing, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, and had been an American Red Cross volunteer.

She was very proud of her family and is survived by her son Paul J. Magoon and his wife Kristina, and grandchildren Matthew and Megan Magoon all of Colorado Springs, CO.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Sunday morning, February 2nd in the Trinity Episcopal Church, 120 Broad Street in Claremont, NH.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to the Magoon/Paquette Scholarship Fund, Stevens High School Alumni Association, 50 West Pleasant Street, Claremont, NH 03743.

The Stringer Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Jeri J. Kangas, 57

Jeri Jean Kangas, 57, of Claremont, NH, passed away suddenly on January 26, 2020. She was born in Claremont, NH, on August 19, 1962.

As a lifelong resident of Claremont, she attended Stevens High School with the class of 1980. Jeri worked as a dental receptionist for 32 years, many years with Dr. Pamplin and recently with Dr. Kramer. In her free time she enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and laughing with family and friends. Her hobbies included braiding rugs, shopping for shoes, and traveling with her best friend Joanie Vashaw, baking her famous cherry pie, and you could find her walking the dogs on Craigue Hill. Her sense of humor was one of a kind.

She is survived by her husband of 38 years, Stephen V. Kangas of Claremont, NH; son Kalen V. Kangas of Sunapee, NH; daughter Jennifer L. Dean and her husband John J. Dean and their children Rayden and Declan of Newbury, NH; mother-in-law Flora D. Kangas of Guild, NH; brother Arnold E. Craigue and his wife Deby D. Craigue, his daughter Lacey Fellows of Lempster, NH, and her partner Justin Westover and their children Izaak and Zayla; and Arnold and Deby's children Arnold, Allison, and Ann-Marie of Claremont, NH; and many cousins, nephews, and nieces.

She was predeceased by her parents Paul E. Craigue and Irene B. (Kukkola) Craigue, of Claremont, NH.

Services were held Saturday, Feb. 1st, at Mountain View Cemetery, Claremont, NH. A Celebration of Life was held following services at Elks in Claremont, NH.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be given to Sullivan County Humane Society.

The Stringer Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Living A Sustainable Lifestyle: Tea & Talk 3-4:30 pm at the Cornish Store.

Explore some of the major challenges facing our global environment and how you can take action to help on a local level. Bring a healthy snack to share and a passage from a favorite environmental book to share and discuss, then share your strategies for how to live more sustainably and encourage others. Topics could include environmental philosophies, clean soil, water, air, and food initiatives, reducing single use plastics, sustainable cleaning products, pollinator gardens, buying local, clean compost, and zero waste practices. Bring your favorite mug and a short reading to share. Tea will be provided.

Facilitators: Pat McGovern & Cindy Heath, with support from the Plainfield & Cornish Energy Committees and the Plainfield & Cornish Conservation Commissions.
